

You are cordially invited to attend a Town Hall Event

In an effort to combat the growing epidemic of prescription drugs and heroin abuse, the FBI and DEA released "Chasing the Dragon: The Life of an Opiate Addict." This documentary was filmed in part at the Rappahannock Regional Jail. Following the viewing, a discussion about the crisis and what individuals and families can do to prevent their loved ones from becoming addicted. The panel will be comprised of representatives from local law enforcement, community mental health, local treatment providers, physicians, the health district, persons of lived experience, and the DEA. The viewings are free and open to the public (Warning: The film contains graphic content and language. Parent discretion is advised)

August 21, 2017
King George Middle School

September 13, 2017
Caroline County Community Center

September 26, 2017
Brooke Point High School

October 2, 2017
James Monroe High School

October 16, 2017
Rubicon Café
Salem Fields Community
Church

Sponsored by:
The Community Collaborative for Youth and Families
www.thecommunitycollaborative.org

